RONCO DELLE BETULLE - ROSSO 2018
The Northeastern part of Italy is home to Friuli with its two main sub regions of Collio Goriziano and Colli Orientali. This part of Italy forms the border with Slovenia and has a very rich wine-making history dating back to the 6th Century BC. Today, Friuli is considered to be one of Italy's most prestigious wine regions, in part due to its modern outlook, and of course because of its unique climate and soils. Friuli's proximity to the Adriatic Sea mitigates the climate, while its elevation helps keep the vines ventilated and well lit, allowing the grapes to ripen slowly and gain complex flavors. Ronco dell Betulle, owned by the Adami family, has a long history in the Rosazzo area of the Colli Orientali del Friuli. They have owned the 17 hectares of land and been making wine here for 5 generations. The entry level red wine Villa Oleis, named after a house in the Rosazzo Vineyard, is a delicious blend of Merlot and Cabernet Franc. Fresh red berries wrapped in spices burst from the glass and flow over the palate with fresh acidity and gentle tannins. This wine will be fantastic with your charcuterie plates and grilled meats! Cheers!

This week's food pick is an award-winning line of cheeses from Vermont, that've been in the dairy making biz for 100 years; Cabot Creamery Co-operative. Nestled in the town of Cabot, Vermont, Cabot creamery opened its doors in 1919 and was founded as a cooperative of 94 farmers, which now to this day is owned and operated by 1800 farm families from the New England and New York areas. Just about every year since 1994, Cabot has walked away with numerous awards and accolades from the most prestigious cheese committees on a national and international level. This week savor and save on a few of their excellent cheddars, available in three flavors; Seriously Sharp White, NY Extra Sharp Yellow and Smoky Bacon (that's right you can bring home the cheddar and the bacon). These cheddars are perfect to slice, shred and dice onto salads, eggs, burgers, sandwiches, chili bowls, tacos, the list goes on and on, and all three will be on sale this week for only $3.99 per 8oz bar, usually $5.99. Cheers and Bon Appetit!
